Recover Bodies Of Two Fishermen

Lifeguards have recovered bodies of two fishermen believed to have been trapped in high rising tide as they fished from a rocky point off Neptune Cove on the Palos Verdes peninsula.
The bodies of Ronald Yoshino, 20, and Wesley Kimura, 19, of Pacoima were found trapped in reef holes at depths of 15 and 30 feet. Search started for the youths when they failed to return home Wednesday evening.
Neptune Cove also claimed the life of a Redondo Beach man more than one year ago.

Adventists Give $350,881 For Welfare Supplies

Los Angeles area Seventh-day Adventists distributed $350,881 in local welfare supplies during the first six months of 1961, according to a report just released from Southland headquarters of the church in Glendale.

William L. Barclay, Glendale, Adventist home missions director, said the supplies were distributed by 80 local welfare units of the church in Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties during the six-month period.
Supplies distributed included 104,575 articles of clothing, 6884 food baskets, 77,666 hours of volunteer help. A total of 36,420 persons in the three counties received the aid, Mr. Barclay said.

The church leader said that the Los Angeles Adventist Welfare headquarters also shipped more than four tons of clothing to overseas points during the six-month period. Special shipments of quilts for Korea and medical supplies to South America were also sent by the Los Angeles headquarters, according to Mr. Barclay.

SCIENTISTS HONORED . . . Four Torrance area residents, scientists at Shell Chemical Company's Torrance Rubber Plant, accept certificates of award from the Los Angeles City and County Schools for their participation in the 1960-61 industry-education program. Shown are, left to right: A. D. McIntyre, 4615 Carson St.; David F. Randolph, program coordinator for the school system, who presented the awards; J. T. Harlan, Jr., 5310 Calle de Ricardo; S. J. McCowan, 1742 Martina Ave.; and J. D. Lauch, Lomita. The four were among 15 Shell scientists who lectured to high school science classes during the year.

Local Student Named to Attend Honors Program

David Gordon Lippman of 3818 W. 184th Pl., who has been a student at North High school, has been selected to attend the resident honors program for high school seniors at the University of Southern California.

A maximum of 30 superior students who have just finished their junior year in high school will enter USC in September. They will participate in an unique educational experiment arranged by USC with the cooperation of Los Angeles county and city school officials.

THE PROGRAM was initiated by Dr. Norman Topping, USC president, following the success of other honors courses for high school students the past two summers.

Living in campus dormitories and attending both special and regular USC classes, the students will complete their senior year of high school and their freshman year of college in the fall and spring semesters if the resident honors program.

In June they will return to their high schools to be graduated with their classes and receive their diplomas, but they will also be ready for their sophomore year of college.

DR. THOMAS E. LASSWELL, 4106 Paseo de las Tortugas, Torrance, associate professor of sociology at USC, will direct the program. He will teach a core course for the high school seniors on great ideas and concepts which have influenced Western civilization. In addition, the students as indicated by interviews and placement tests will enter certain honors

Citizens Bank Will Open New Torrance Branch

Citizens National Bank has completed lease arrangements for a branch office in the Rolling Hills Plaza Shopping Center at Pacific Coast Hwy and Crenshaw Blvd., it is announced by Roy A. Britt, Citizens president.

Located at 2599 Pacific Coast Hwy., the new Citizens office will be in the shopping center which includes a J. J. Newberry store, a Thrifty Drug store, a Foods Co. Market and many fine retail and service shops. Owners and developers of the Rolling Hills Plaza Shopping Center are Albert Levitt and James S. Bower.

Remodeling of the existing building will begin immediately, with opening of the Citizens office planned in September. The banking quarters will contain 2555 square feet of space and will offer regular banking facilities and services.

At the same time, it was revealed that Citizens has already made arrangements in the shopping center for a building site to construct a larger permanent office to replace the temporary quarters. Plans and specifications are now being prepared for a modern, spacious office, which will open in 1962.

Now in its 71st year, Citizens National Bank has 63 branch offices in the Southern California area with total resources of more than $600 million.

Sections in science, mathematics, American government, and English language or literature. Also, based upon careful advisement and testing, the students may take courses in foreign languages or certain electives.

... Action Plan

freeway construction. These slides will be part of the program planning sessions that will give hundreds of individuals an opportunity for participation during the coming weeks.

John Tweedy, manager of Southwest Savings and Loan, monitored Friday's session as will many others who will serve in like capacity during the coming weeks under the general direction of William Greenawald, Torrance manager Southern California Edison Co., chairman of the campaign which has been titled "Action Planning for Torrance Through Citizenship Participation."

WHEN ALL of the many groups have completed their meetings, results will be tabulated by an IBM computer and a program based on the findings adopted by the Chamber of Commerce board of directors. The four major fields of activity will cover industrial development, governmental affairs, commercial activities and civic affairs.
